

Paul Green Foundation

NEWS – July 2013

It's not too late to see a
Paul Green Outdoor Drama this summer!

The Lost Colony

MANTEO, NC

www.thelostcolony.org

Trumpet in the Land

NEW PHILADELPHIA OH

<http://www.trumpetintheland.com/>

Texas Musical Drama

CANYON, TX

www.texas-show.com

Stephen Foster Story

BARDSTOWN, KY

<http://www.stephenfoster.com>

Paul and Elizabeth Green Scholarship

Since 1972 an annual scholarship has been awarded to a theatre arts student in the Center for Dramatic Art at UNC-Chapel Hill. This scholarship was set up by Green family members and friends in honor of Paul and Elizabeth Green's 50th wedding anniversary. The 2013 recipient is Adrienne Corral who received her MFA from the costume production program this spring. She was awarded entry to the US Institute for Theatre Technology nationals for her craft work. During the past year, Adrienne has served as a graduate teaching assistant in the department.

Paul Green's

The House of Connelly* a big hit!

On Sunday, June 20th at 3 p.m., "Almost Ready: A Series of Plays by North Carolina Writers" ended its monthly year-long series with Paul Green's The House of Connelly. The cast of 16 talented actors performed the staged reading, which was masterfully directed by Burning Coal's artistic director, Jerome Davis. The rain was coming down outside by cats and dogs (as it did often this summer) but still an enthusiastic audience braved the weather and completely enjoyed this full-length play performed on an unbelievably small stage. Hats off to Richard Krawiec of "Playground, A Theatre Cooperative" and "The ArtsCenter of Carrboro" for ending their Series with a play that was not an "almost ready" play, but was in fact performed as the first play of the Group Theatre in 1931 in New York.

Marsha Warren, Paul Green Fdn. P.O. Box 2624, Chapel Hill, NC 27515 www.paulgreen.org, paulgreenfdn@gmail.com